

AAPSM Past President Assists in Medical Mission in Guatemala

AAPSM Past President David Jenkins joined 3 of his students from the Arizona School of Podiatric Medicine – Ryan Jenson, Logan Orr and Jared Minson as well as another 90 or so health professionals on a medical mission to Guatemala held February 24th through March 3rd. This multidisciplinary group included Medicine, Women's health, Optometry, Dental, Dermatology, Occupational Therapy and Pharmacy. The group was bused, sometimes for 2-3 hours to remote villages where health care is severely limited. Most "clinics" were set up at schools. Overnights were in hotels in Antigua, a beautiful city surrounded by volcanos.
